

Arrabal Teatro

The Spanish theatre company will participate in the International Theatre Festival of Mont-Laurier.

The Spanish amateur company Arrabal Teatro will participate in the 7th International Theatre Festival of Mont-Laurier with the play Cama caliente a la deriva by Mónica Sánchez Fernández.

The play shows the reality of two persons that one day dreamed about improving their life by immigrating to a developed country. One of them wanted to study international law and the other one, much younger, left his county with the hope of becoming a singer. The harsh reality has led them to share a bed in a dark hostel of a big Spanish city.
