

Mal Pelo's Le cinquième hiver

Mal Pelo dance company by María Muñoz and Pep Ramis present Le cinquième hiver.

Each visit by the Catalan choreographer María Muñoz to the Agora de la danse has met with much acclaim praising her inventiveness, her choreographic vigour and her humour. She is coming back for the third time to present Le cinquième hiver, a duo with Pep Ramis, with whom she co-directs Mal Pelo, one of the most important contemporary dance companies in Spain.

The winter they survey in this piece is a fantastic, surrealist landscape. With clear movement and complicit commitment, they glow onstage. With playful scenes and strategies, they invert expectations. The maturity of these two bodies of unequalled solidity impresses with poetry and a fullness that only those who have lived it can truly convey.

Marvellous María Muñoz [...] her vocabulary is lavish and finely wrought [...] Quite magical.

—Stéphanie Brody, La Presse (review of Bach)

Muñoz delivers a physical and considered reflection that is quite elaborate, a reflection imbued with intelligence.

Catherine Lalonde, Le Devoir (review of Tous les noms)
