

Ottawa International Animation Festival 2022

This year's edition of the "Ottawa International Animation Festival," North America's oldest and largest animation festival, features two Spanish films: "Unicorn Wars" by Albert Vasquez and "Bonjour Douala" by José Ramón Bas.

This 5-day, competitive, Oscar®-recognized film festival running September 21-25, has grown into one of the most significant film events in the world since its launch in 1976, running every September in the Nation's capital.

UNICORN WARS

- On September 23, 7:15 pm.
- On September 24 at 9:15 pm.
- At ByTowne Cinema, 325 Rideau St, Ottawa, ON K1N 5Y4. Buy tickets.
- Directed by Albert Vasquez, Spain / France, 93 minutes.
- Feature film competition. Watch trailer.

The little bears army indoctrinates young recruits to lead them to a war they have started against the unicorns because they represent a threat for the security of their people. Two brothers; Bluey and Tubby, along with a group of new recruits without experience, will be sent on a dangerous mission to save the Magic Forest... Will the little bears be up to the challenge?

FILM
OTTAWA

Thu, September 22–
Sat, September 24, 2022

Venue

ByTowne Cinema and, Ottawa
View map

More information

Ottawa International Animation Festival 2022

BONJOUR DOUALA

- On September 22 at 1 pm. At Ottawa Art Gallery: Alma Duncan, 50 Mackenzie King Bridge, Ottawa, ON K1N 0C5. Buy tickets.
- On September 23 at 3 pm. At ByTowne Cinema, 325 Rideau St, Ottawa, ON K1N 5Y4. Buy tickets.
- Directed by José Ramón Bas, 2022, Spain / Cameroon, 5 minutes. World panorama.

This animated short is a journey through the city of Douala, one of the most important ports in West Africa, in Cameroon. Like a small road movie we enter into the movement of motorcycles and people while fantastic situations occur with a curious final outcome.

