

The true adventures of Don Quixote de la Mancha

A theatre production based on authentic testimonials and stunning discoveries of “Don Quixote.”

The Théâtre Sortie de Secours (The Long Journey of Pierre-Guy B.) and Pupulus Mordicus (Méphisto Méliès, Cabaret Gainsbourg) team up with the company Gataro from Barcelona to present a new fantasy creation, around the adventures of the wandering knight created by Miguel de Cervantes, Don Quixote de la Mancha.

Maese Pedro, a famous puppet showman of La Mancha, has allegedly made some astonishing discoveries around Cervantes’ work, making him question the boundary between reality and fiction. 400 years later, Maese Pedro and the team led by Philippe Soldevila reveal this unpublished story.
