

Eduard Márquez at IFOA 2017

Spanish author Eduard Márquez participates in the sessions “Relate and Reflect” and “Around the World” at this year’s Toronto’s International Festival of Authors.

Since its inception in 1974, Toronto’s International Festival of Authors has welcomed more than 9,000 authors from over 100 countries, including 22 Nobel Laureates and countless other award winners.

Eduard Márquez, who lives in Barcelona, published two books of poetry in Spanish before writing Zugzwang, his first work in Catalan. He has continued writing in Catalan, publishing another collection of short fiction, twelve children’s books, and four novels. His work has been translated into German, Italian, Spanish, and Turkish. He presents Brandes’ Decision.

RELATE AND REFLECT

- On October 22 at 4 pm. Buy tickets.
- Join Nicola Lagioia, Rachel Manley, Eduard Márquez, Jean E. Pendziwol and Mary Walsh as they read from their latest works.

AROUND THE WORLD

- On October 24 at 6 pm. Buy tickets.
- For an hour and a half you will be transported to three continents and nine countries with readings by our visiting international authors.

IFOA 2017 will run from October 19–29. View full program.

LITERATURE
TORONTO

Sun, October 22–
Tue, October 24, 2017

Venue

Harbourfront Centre, 235 Queens Quay
W, Toronto, ON M5J 2G8

View map

Phone: 416-973-4000

More information

IFOA

Credits

Photo by ACN, NacióDigital